Pastor's Notes

Years ago, I read an essay in which the writer commented that when he drives, he's usually putting more faith in Ford than he generally puts in God. That's a pretty startling thought for those of us who drive around calling ourselves Christians. How tentatively would I drive if my faith in the brakes were on a par with my faith in God? How daring would I be with the accelerator? The Book of Wisdom fleshes that out a bit by describing how the Israelites demonstrated their faith: They wore their running shoes to the Passover supper. That meal, the model for our Eucharist, was not planned to be a sit-down affair. Passover faith is a verb, not a noun. Our Gospel begins with Jesus telling his disciples to demonstrate their faith by giving everything away. He then tells them to obey the dress code for Passover by having their loins girt, ready for the road. Jesus said this to the disciples accompanying him on his road. These women and men had left home and family and had already heard that they are headed for Jerusalem where he would be captured and killed. As if to get them ready for that, he tells them to leave their fear behind with their possessions. Fr Gene

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

As we reflect on the Assumption of Mary, we are led into the beautiful truths of God's love for humankind. In the Virgin Mary, we have the exemplar of our purpose and destiny. Mary, the Mother of God, leads us by her supreme example toward a life of true Christian discipleship. She has forged ahead the path of final beatitude; she beckons us; prays for us; and, unceasingly guides us with delicate and beautiful hands toward that place where she herself resides: eternal, unending joy in the face-to-face vision of God. What God has promised on the last day for those he loves, he has already accomplished in the Virgin Mary. Let us turn to Mary and love her as our spiritual Mother in the order of grace; let us open our hearts to her Immaculate Heart, that she may illuminate her Son all the more in our lives, guiding us toward orthodoxy and unity, and instilling through her intercession a lively and burning faith within our hearts. Excerpted from The Assumption: The Virgin Mary goes before us in the Order of Grace by F. K. Bartels on www.catholic.org.

Learning to social dance is one of the healthiest things you can do for your body and your mind, providing exercise for both. Improve your balance and coordination, connect with a partner as a team, socialize with friends, relax and let your cares disappear for an hour or so, all while learning a new skill. On Monday, August 12th, at OLL 6 pm, Joanna Lessard (with parents, Paul and Kathy Schneider) is offering a sample class to teens and adults to start to learn the very basics of ballroom dancing. Singles or couples, no experience necessary, and all states of health welcome!!

Praise & Worship at OLL

OLL Knights of Columbus

The July breakfast as usual went very well with us serving over 100 people. We also contributed to the Queens Tea on the same day. Donated the food and volunteered members to help with the preparing and service. It was much appreciated by all the Queen's Tea Participants. A big THANK YOU goes out to all the members who helped in both events. With that being said a challenge to all our members to bring in at least 1 new member in the coming year. Won't know if you don't try. We are planning a church drive scheduled for after the Festival. This year at the Festival we will provide Form 100's at the Beer Garden for any prospective new Members. So don't forget to bring along a friend with your beer, pop, wine and water donations. A heads up to all our 1st degree brothers. We are currently working diligently to host a 2nd and 3rd degree exemplification at Our Lady of the Lakes on September 21st. More on this event will be forth coming in the next few weeks. I'm awaiting confirmation on the teams needed from our District Deputy. But I wanted to get the word out so you can clear your schedules if possible.
