Pastor's Notes

Having prayed our way through Holy Week, we are only too aware that the disciples, particularly the men among them, performed poorly during the events of Jesus' passion. Unsurprisingly, they didn't do a lot better with the Resurrection. The Gospel for the Easter Vigil (Luke 24:1-12) tells us that women were the only ones to visit Jesus' tomb. They found it empty and believed the angel who reminded them that Jesus had foretold this. The eleven leading men with whom the women shared their news assumed it was all nonsense. Only Peter took them seriously enough to go see for himself, and he returned amazed, but still as confused as ever about the women's testimony.

The Easter Sunday morning Gospel (John 20:1-9) reveals that of all of them, only Mary Magdalen spoke the truth about the disciples' immediate situation. That happened rather inadvertently when she admitted that "they" had taken the Lord and "we" do not know where he is. The disciples were in a state of confusion — at best.

The Gospel for Easter Sunday afternoon (Luke 24:13-36) returns to Luke's narrative and Jesus' surprise encounter with two disciples leaving Jerusalem for the town of Emmaus. They were on a journey of seven miles; geographically and symbolically, they expected it to be all downhill. Fr Gene

Our sincere sympathy to the families of
Georgette Murphy & Pat Siegert
May she rest in peace.

The methodology, structure, content, and enthusiasm of Totus Tuus is concerned not only with teaching the faith, but also igniting the hearts of the team members and young people. ### Easter Octave

You likely already know that the Easter Season lasts for 50 days, beginning on Easter Sunday and ending at Pentecost. But did you know that because Easter Sunday is such a solemn occasion, we celebrate Easter Sunday itself for an entire week? This week of Easter Sunday is called the Octave of Easter. Of Course, we don't pretend that everyday is Sunday, as if time does not pass, but the prayers and language of the Easter Octave liturgies maintain the form of the Solemnity. At Masses during the Octave of Easter, just as at the Sunday Liturgy, the Gloria is recited or sung. The Gospel Acclamation, or the Alleluia, proclaimed is, "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." the Gospel readings include passages with various appearances of the Risen Jesus. And, the double "Alleluia" is sung at the dismissal. The Octave of Easter is the way the Church prolongs the greatest celebration of the Christian faith. Happy Easter Sunday.....all week. Kathy Long.

Attention All Service People

The Blue Mass will be held at OLL in Balsam Lake on Saturday, May 18, at 6:00pm. This Mass is to honor firemen, policemen, EMT's, and others. Following the Blue Mass there will be a blessing of the service vehicles in the parking lot; followed by a picnic supper, door prizes, and socializing in the social hall. Please come so the community can honor your dedicated public service. Everyone is welcome!

Our hope and prayer for these gatherings is to be Spirit driven, faith filled gatherings of the people of God from all walks and ages, to build community, and exercise our charisms through contemporary music, intercessory prayer, testimony of God's work in our lives, and scripture.

All are invited and welcome to join us as we begin this spiritual journey. Remember Fr. Gene told us that our story is not written yet! Let us all choose to build our stairway to see the light of God's face! Please join us on Wednesday, May 8th at OLL. Refreshments will be provided following the session.
